Safe Streets Arrest

January 10, 2019 [FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE]

On January 10, 2019 at approximately 4:00 a.m., Watch IV officers observed a stolen vehicle in the 2300 block of Spruce Street. The officers then observed a wanted person, 36-year-old Juan Gallegos, exit the vehicle and enter a residence.

Officers determined Gallegos was in the residence armed with a handgun. Officers attempted to negotiate with Gallegos, but he failed to exit the residence. The Pueblo Police Department SWAT team then responded and arrested Gallegos without incident.

Gallegos had several arrest warrants totaling $160,000 in bonds. A handgun was also recovered in the residence where Gallegos was hiding. Gallegos was arrested on his warrants and new charges.
